enjoyable breaks

You can cool off with local and imported drinks and snacks from one of our bars, open 24-hours a day, or you can enjoy sweet pleasures with desserts and cakes that will linger delightfully on your palate.

the land of happy children

Whatever their ages, all guests at Susesi Luxury Resort are special. But children are even more special. We have created a bespoke world for children at Susesi Luxury Resort, where they are left in the hands of our specially trained staff.

cool youth, cool age

We created a true youth club for our guests aged 13-16 from around the world, where they will find a play area, a DJ setup and DJ lessons, a non-alcoholic bar, Internet access, TV, and team games.

mediterranean sun

Susesi (“sound of water”) Luxury Resort takes its name from the swimming pools that span 7,500 m². Starting from the pools surrounding our lake houses, you can reach the beach without even getting out of the water.

You can have fun with your children in our aqua park featuring six slides, swim at your leisure in our 1,530 m² pool or relax in our 1,400 m² palm pool. You can enjoy the sun and the sea on the jetty at our beach, measuring more than 300 metres and featuring special sunbathing terraces, or choose from a range of water sports on our other jetty.

the taste of entertainment

Sport activities for all preferences are offered throughout the day at Susesi Luxury Resort, setting your holiday in motion while our experienced animators ensure you have an enjoyable time.

In the evening, entertainment is carried to the top at Susesi Luxury Resort. While you let yourself go with world renowned shows concerts, performances and parties, nights turn into dawn.

this time, we are the one sweeping you off your feet

We are at your service, with our cheerful team offering a special welcome, and delivering the special services and surprises for honeymoon couples that make the first days of your life together unforgettable.

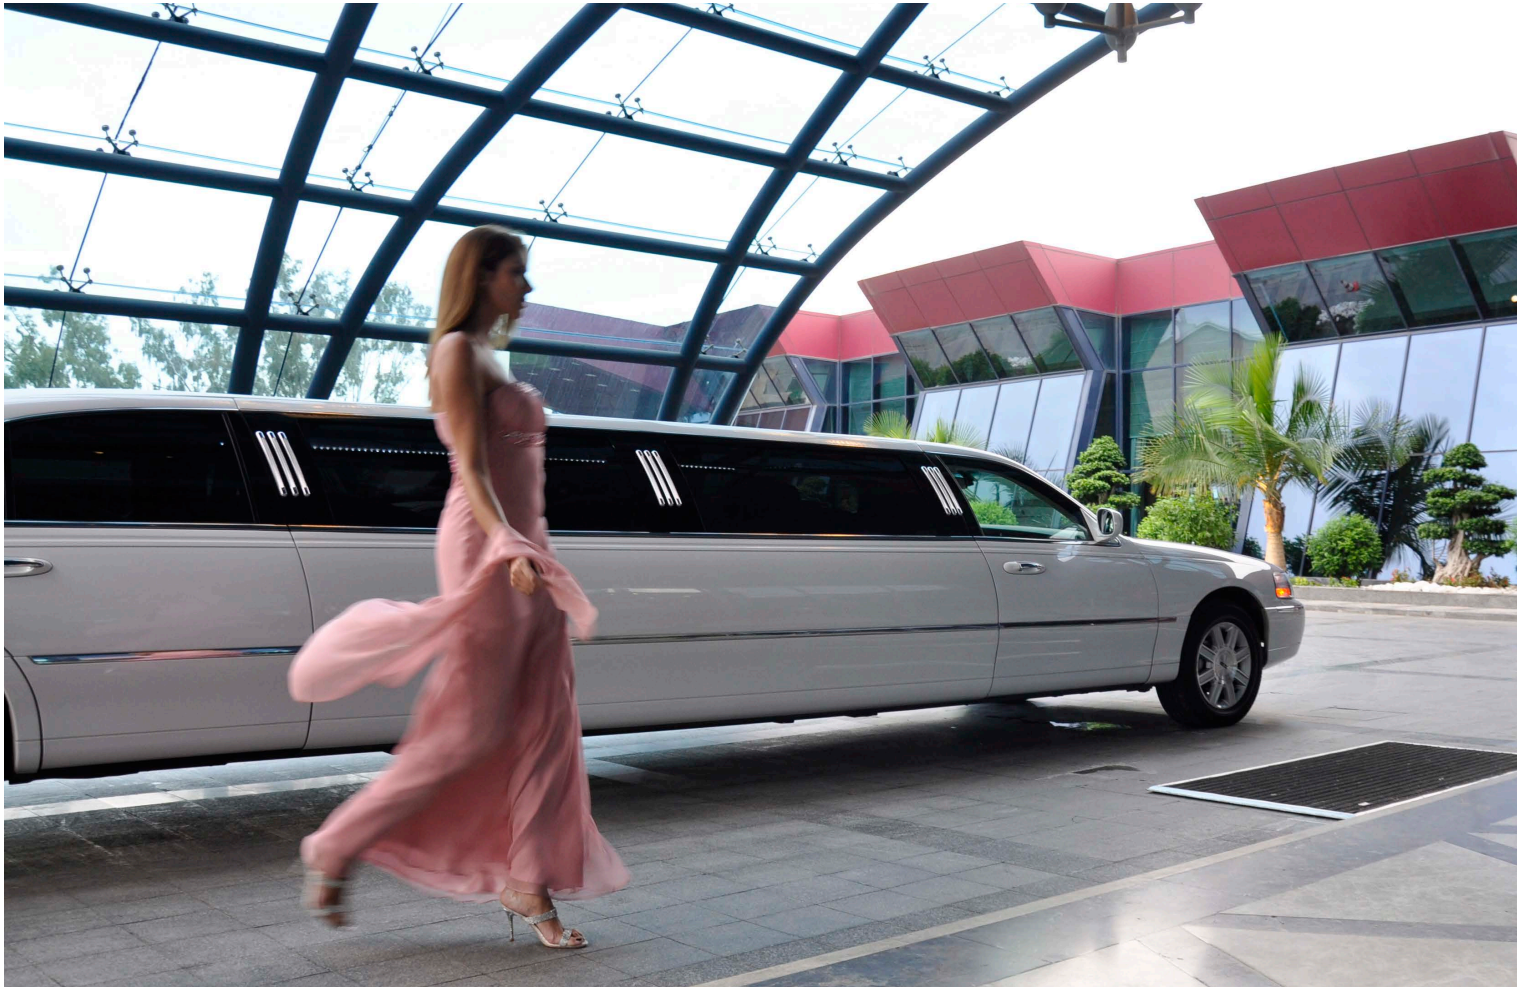
the secret of youth, La Calisse

Susesi Luxury Resort, along with the unique Mediterranean sun and sea, opens the doors to beauty and health for its guests. La Calisse Spa takes its name from the “sacred chalice” of legends in French literature, the chalice that promises eternal youth to whoever sips from it.

La Calisse Spa, which is at your service with a 4,500 m² space, features four VIP rooms, each offering a different concept with the same immaculate attention to detail, as well as special therapy rooms, massage rooms, a Turkish bath, a sauna, a steam room, a fitness centre and two indoor swimming pools.

La Calisse, peace that wraps your soul

The experienced staff at La Calisse Spa ensures that their guests are rested and rejuvenated, by cleansing their body and soul with therapies utilizing the latest technology and products from leading brands.
At La Calisse Spa we offer our distinguished guests a wide range of choices, each with a different concept.

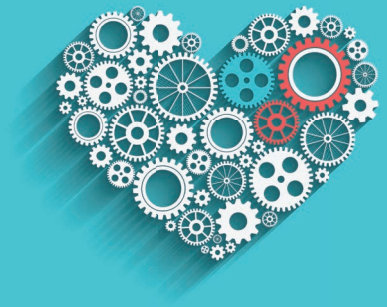


bespoke events

For guests who would like to make their special day even more distinctive, we add meaningful memories to your life, turning your days and nights into unique moments - from romantic candlelit dinners to private group parties.

meetings, conferences, events

The Conference Centre at Susesi Luxury Resort offers highly professional services to ensure that your meetings and events run flawlessly. Our skilled team creates the right atmosphere at the right time, combining a superior service with state-of-the-art technology, so that participants can enjoy their presentations and meetings without worrying about anything else.



Our aim is to offer flawless service during special events, and to create unforgettable memories for our guests.

We are pleased and proud to have hosted one of the world's largest sports congresses, SPORTACCORD, and the ICCA, known as the Congress of all Congresses. We also hosted the NATO summit realised with the participation of the foreign secretaries and delegation committees of 46 countries, including 28 NATO member countries, as well as the presidents of Malaysia and Singapore and their respective delegation committees, the Argentina delegation committee, the Secretary General and delegation committee of the United Nations, the World Bank, the IMF, and the ILO during the G20 summit, which took place in Antalya, Belek.
